Forecast for Friday 07 Oct 2022

Weather: Cloudy with occasional showers overnight. Remaining cloudy through the morning with showers, but a heavy band of rain is expected to bring a few hours of more persistent rain around the middle of the day. Small risk of hail and thunder. Brighter conditions with a few showers pushing in from the west towards dusk. Strong to gale force summit winds with a significant wind chill. Showers continuing in the evening

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 20% to 40%, becoming 90% by the end of the afternoon, although cloud lowering in any showers.

Low cloud and visibility: Cloud extensive, base 600m with patches to 300m at times, lifting and breaking above the summits during the afternoon, although lowering significantly in any showers. Visibility moderate or poor in rain, and very poor at height, becoming mainly very good later in the afternoon, but much lower in showers.
